

I am writing to comment on how
Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
of how Sinclair is
not serving the
public

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free
of charge, and is
obligated by law to
serve the public interest. This is clearly not a move
to serve the public
interest, but a very
biased move.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. Thank you.
